

Your Workplace Recruitment Team

Recruiting in the workplace sector, Talent Locker finds itself within a small community of people that are changing the way offices across the UK are designed and structured, how they behave and most importantly, what they deliver for their staff.

We are true to our workplace roots and concentrate solely on workplace strategy, change, consulting, and space & occupancy planning positions. We are a trusted provider to global real estate consultancies, architectural practices and independent workplace consultancies.

Industry

Talent Locker has more than 20 years of industry-specific experience in the Workplace market and has been listed as an approved, exclusive supplier to many leading, global brands.

We recognise that the Workplace market is busier than ever, with organisations putting together return to office strategies. If you want to stand out from your competition and attract the best Talent in the market, we're here to help.

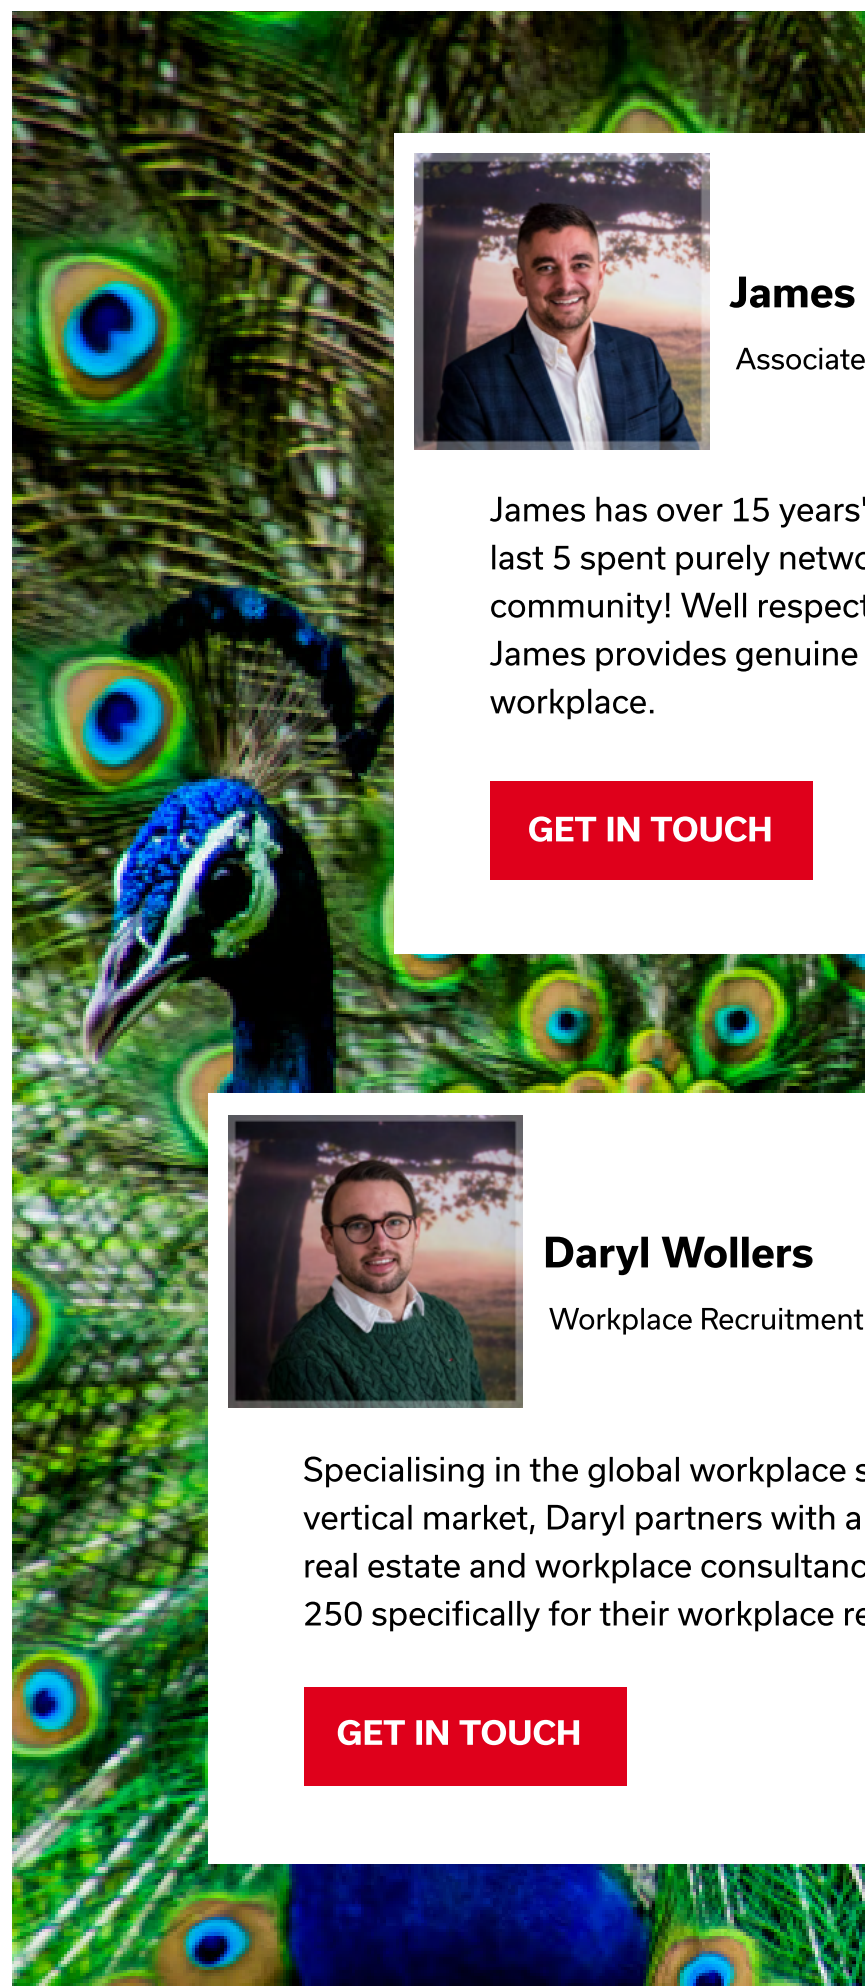

We only place workplace strategy, change and consulting candidates - keeping a clear focus within this exciting and busy workplace community.

We keep our knowledge current and fresh by attending, and sometimes speaking at, workplace conferences like CoreNet Global, WORKTECH and IFWM.

With such a tight vertical market, over 80% of CV's submitted result in offers. Our clients respect that unearthing top quality candidates is our raison d'être!

James Saunders

April

Workplace Consultant

"James and the team at Talent Locker were great to work with. For the first time in my career, I was able to speak to a recruiter who truly understood my workplace role.

The professionalism and expertise demonstrated by James was well above expectations. I would highly recommend James and the team if you are a candidate or an employer."

Anne

Workplace Change Manager

"I would highly recommend anyone looking for roles in workplace change or occupancy planning to take a look at The Talent Locker.

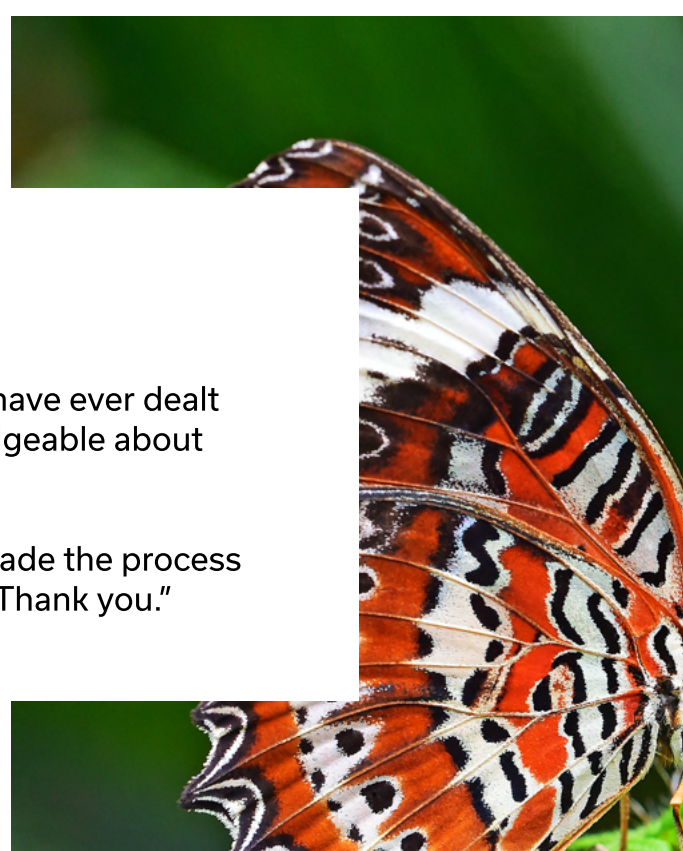

I found James Saunders to be very attentive, working closely with me to find appropriate and interesting opportunities. James kept me informed on progress with applications and stayed in touch after he secured a role for me."

Ali

Occupancy Planner

"Daryl is without doubt, one of the best recruiters I have ever dealt with. He is extremely professional and very knowledgeable about occupancy and space planning.

He has helped me find the perfect job myself and made the process enjoyable. I can't recommend Daryl highly enough! Thank you."

Great experience with Talent Locker, both as a candidate in placing me into a fantastic position with clear communication and also as a client, recruiting for me and finding candidates that meet my criteria. Their due diligence in finding me potential candidates that truly meet the expectations I am after, keeping both sides up to date along the way and handling negotiations and contracts make Talent Locker the best in the business. Would thoroughly recommend and will continue to use for all positions.
