The Rungway platform gives everyone equal access to the best mentorship, advice and support within your organisation.

Forward-thinking companies use Rungway to:

Level the playing field

Anonymity provides a safe space where people can crowdsource advice without fear of judgement.

Reduce blindspots

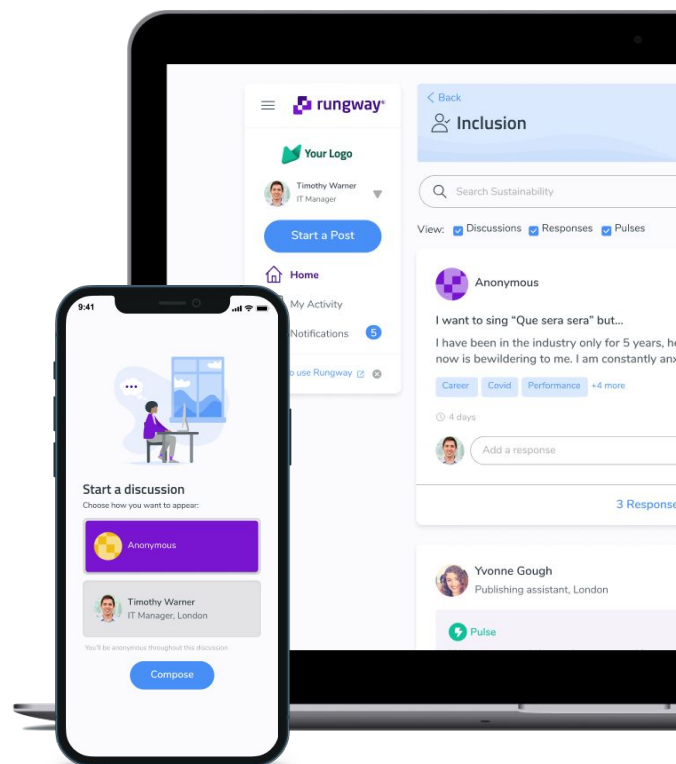

Capture the lived employee experience in a dynamic, meaningful way to reduce blindspots and identify areas for improvement in real-time.

Guide, support and mentor at a scale

On Rungway, 90% of advice comes from a different department. Break down silos and let everyone join the conversation.

A safe space for open conversations

Safe for employees, safe for management. Unique technology scans for culture & conduct keywords, with sensitive questions routed to specialists for the right 1:1 support, so you can't be caught out.
